
finished products
talent/competent personnel human resources
semi-finished products
unsalable product
country girls working in cities
service industry
substitution of tax payment for profitdelivery
productive forces
means of contributing investment
traditional products
service trades
hard currency-earning exports
capital account
contract for labor and material
mining industry
working technique; method of operation
grassroots industry
agency agreement
power industry
design of products
sunrise industry
whole sets of equipment
well-known trademark
electronics industry
sole agency; exclusive agent
textile industry
clothing industry
iron and steel industry
isolating switch
engineering drawing
industrial base
industrial stagnation
industrial park
public bidding; open tender
state-owned enterprise
contractual term of a joint venture
methods of cooperation
supporting industry
chemical industry
basic industry
technology invested as capital stock technology transfer
processing industry
highly sophisticated/state-of-the-art product building industry

assembling with supplied parts
flagship product
leading enterprise; flagship of the industry inland associated enterprises auxiliary/supporting project supporting funds
mass production
cutting tool
upgrading and updating
capital goods
a market slump
market access
highly competitive product
human resources market
the private sector
township enterprises
fix production target according to marketability
bids for technology
leading industry
invigorate large enterprises while relaxing control over small on es

patented technology
certificate of origin
industrial added value
corporate income tax
domestic sales of commodities originally produced for export

s